“A growing body of studies presents compelling evidence connecting student learning in the arts to a wide spectrum of academic and social benefits. These studies document the habits of mind, social competencies and personal dispositions inherent to arts learning. Additionally, research has shown that what students learn in the arts may help them to master other subjects, such as reading, math or social studies.”

Mission and History

About bergenPAC Performing Arts School

The Education program at bergenPAC features a series of classes, school residencies, workshops, live performances, student productions and ensemble groups in the performing arts for students ages 2 1/2 months to 21 years old. The program provides students with unique and “hands-on” arts training by industry professionals that allow them to gain real world experience and enhance academic achievement through the arts. bergenPAC’s arts education initiatives occur on-site at our new Performing Arts School building at 1 Depot Square, Englewood, NJ or off-site at other schools. The school reaches more than 30,000 students annually. The Performing Arts School offers basic and professional level performing arts classes and ensemble groups and productions in theater, dance and music for students of all ages. The school also offers beyond bergenPAC, a school Partnership Program with school districts throughout the area.

History

The Englewood Plaza Theatre opened on November 22, 1927 and provided the city with a vibrant cultural center for several decades until closing in 1973. But three years later, in 1976, a group of local citizens brought the building back to life as the John Harms Center for the Arts. Major renovations in the 1990s turned it into a modern concert hall and arts facility, while preserving the vintage acoustics that made it a unique and sought-after performance and recording site. A performing arts school was also created within the theater. But after falling victim to post-9/11 declining sales revenues, John Harms closed in 2003, leaving a gaping hole in the region’s cultural life.

Recognizing the value in having a vibrant arts institution, the theater was re-energized once again when a small group of dedicated residents, led by its founder and current mayor of Englewood, Frank Huttler III, opened the Bergen Performing Arts Center on April 30, 2003. Working together, the six founding trustees developed a plan to first revitalize the theater and then build a strong arts education facility. Their efforts ultimately enhanced the quality of life for residents throughout North Jersey and beyond.

Student Responsibility

The Performing Arts School at bergenPAC is an environment for serious students who want to develop their skills in the performing arts. All students are expected to abide by the rules of the school, and commit to regular practice time outside of class to get the most out of their learning experience. All students will be advised by their instructors about required class materials and students are expected to be prepared for each class session. Lines, music and choreography, etc. are expected to be learned by the deadline provided by the instructor in class.

In order to maintain a creative, educational and safe environment, students are expected to uphold and respect the following Rules of Conduct.

1. Once you are signed in and dropped off by a parent/guardian, do not leave the Performing Arts School without permission from a bergenPAC staff member, for any reason.
2. Respect the Performing Arts School facilities, faculty, staff and students at all times.
3. Do not miss class or be late. Unless of unexpected illness or family emergency, students are expected to attend every class session and be on time. No more than two excused absences will be granted per program session. Excused absences must be submitted in writing in advance and approved by the Managing Director.
4. Do not bring valuables to the building. The Performing Arts School at bergenPAC is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged items, including but not limited to: cell phones, iPads, tablets, jewelry or clothing. Please be aware that there are security cameras throughout the building.
5. Do not eat in studios or any other facility or campus area other than the lounge.

3. Program Suspension or Expulsion

- If issue persists after verbal and written warning, and/or if an incident is severe, parent will be notified and asked to come in to speak with student and Managing Director
- No refund will be given if a student is suspended or expelled from the program due to breaking the Rules of Conduct

Safety

SAFETY WITHIN THE bergenPAC FACILITY:

The safety of all students is very important to us. In addition to our in-house security staff at the school and at the theater, we are also within close proximity to the Englewood Police Department, which is located at 75 South Van Brunt Street, Englewood, NJ 07631. Students are required to remain in the Performing Arts School at all times, and are not permitted to leave the building without an adult.

FIRE DRILLS:

As a safety measure, fire drills may happen regularly and without warning. In such an event, please follow instructions from bergenPAC staff and leave the building quickly and in an orderly fashion. The meeting place will be directly across the street in Veteran's Park at Depot Square. Your teachers and staff will take a headcount once everyone is at the park. You must remain at the park and not go back into the building until instructed to do so led by faculty/staff.

INCLEMENT WEATHER PROCEDURE:

In the event of inclement weather, please check your email. The school will send out an email communication if classes are canceled during the business day. Otherwise, please check our voicemail, our website and/or our Facebook page for updates regarding delays and/or cancellations due to weather.

Traffic Alert! Please be aware of traffic and construction delays, and plan accordingly. Please be careful crossing the street upon entering/exiting the building, as it is a very busy street.

Medical

Medical Form

A Medical Form is part of the registration application, and must be completed in order to register.

bergenPAC staff members are ready and available to deal with minor first aid issues. We have first aid kits at the front desk. In the case of sickness or injury, parents will be notified and the student will be taken to the Emergency Room with a bergenPAC employee. The nearest hospital is Englewood Hospital at 350 Engle Street, Englewood, NJ 07631.

All bergenPAC staff are required to hold CPR certification. The PAS management team members are CPR infant and adult certified.

Medication

Students are not allowed to carry any prescription or over-the-counter medication in the school. If a student requires medication, a parent/guardian must inform bergenPAC staff via email.

Bathroom Protocol

Students who are part of any program that does not include a parent/guardian must be toilet trained. If frequent accidents occur, a parent/guardian will be notified and proper action will be taken. The exception is the Mommy & Me Music classes because a parent/caregiver must be present in those classes.

FIRST AID/MEDICAL EMERGENCIES:

A bergenPAC staff member will be available to administer first aid and handle emergency situations. If it is something minor, our staff will address the situation.

In the event of serious illness or injury, bergenPAC will call emergency services. Please note that EMTs are required by law to call an ambulance to transport a minor child to the emergency room if a parent/guardian is unable to immediately assume responsibility for the child in person. Parents/guardians will be notified immediately. If parent/guardian cannot answer our call, the first emergency name provided upon registration will be contacted. All incidents will be documented carefully for our records and for the records of the family.

Injury Reporting

In case of an injury, please adhere to the following protocol:

INJURIES:

1. Immediately notify a bergenPAC staff member and provide as much details as possible.
2. The bergenPAC staff member will help the student, and will administer proper first aid as needed, and will write an injury report.
3. The bergenPAC staff member will stay with student, call/bring in a parent if needed, etc.

Touch In Instruction

Human touch is an essential and typical component of instruction in dance, theater, and music. Illustrating a point about breath control, a voice professor presses on a student's diaphragm. A dance teacher's hand on a student's body can be used to demonstrate correct dance posture and form.

Though use of touch in performing arts instruction is common, some students may be more or less comfortable than others.

Instructors in our programs will remain mindful of the students' needs and expectations. In teaching minor students, for example, a bergenPAC instructor cannot use touch in the same way that the instructor experiences it in his or her own professional training.

bergenPAC faculty have been instructed to adhere to the following guidelines to help maintain comfort:

1. Limit touch to what is necessary and appropriate for the instructional point.
2. Always ask first if a student is comfortable.
3. Always explain the purpose before using touch in instruction.
4. If a student seems uncomfortable or expresses any concerns about touch, acknowledge the matter and immediately stop. Notify a bergenPAC staff member.

Dress Code

Students at the Performing Arts School at bergenPAC are encouraged to dress in clothes and shoes that allow them to dance, sing and act comfortably. No dresses or skirts. Jewelry of any kind is strongly discouraged. Students must wear attire that is appropriate for a school environment. Frayed or ripped clothing or anything revealing is not permitted. Certain classes will have specific attire requirements. Please call our front desk or check our website for clarification.

Missed Class/Makeup Policy

Students are welcome to make up any missed classes based on availability if they have an excused absence. Make-ups must be completed within the session. Make-ups are non-transferable to other disciplines. The Performing Arts School is not obligated to offer make-ups for any unexcused absences.

Attendance & Tardiness

Consistent attendance is crucial to the learning process. Students are allowed no more than two excused absences per calendar year. Excused absences must be submitted to Performing Arts School administration at least two weeks in advance. Please call the front desk to inform us if you will be absent or late to class. Make every effort to be on time. Excessive absences may result in a student not being allowed to perform in the culminating performance.

Private Lesson Cancellation

If a student needs to cancel a private lesson, we must be notified no later than 1pm the day of the lesson. The lesson can then be rescheduled within two weeks. If notice is not given by 1pm, or a student does not show up for a lesson, no make-up lesson will be given. Missed lessons are non-refundable and non-transferable between family members.

Class Placement/Switching Classes

Some classes offer multiple levels (beginner, intermediate, etc.), and these classes require placement into the appropriate skill level. This is determined by the teacher during the first couple of weeks of class. Sometimes a teacher will recommend that a student switch to a different class, depending upon the skill level and needs of the student. The Performing Arts School offers instruction to students at all ages and abilities. Placement is always done with the best intentions for the student and to provide a safe and comfortable learning environment for all.

Tuition Payment/Refund Policy

Tuition is due in full upon registration. Payment plans can be arranged upon request. Refunds are possible within the first four weeks of the session. A $50 drop fee is charged if a class must be dropped after the first four weeks of the school year.

Scholarships

Scholarships are available for many of our programs. The 2018/19 Scholarship application can be found at bergenPAC.org/education/scholarships
